The Last Sunday after Pentecost: Christ the King Sunday

Harvest Thanksgiving

Sunday, November 21, 2021

8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. The Celebration of the Holy Eucharist with Homily
Celebrant and Homilist: The Reverend Dr. Anthony B. Holder, Rector

Mission Statement:

The Community of All Saints' accepts the empowerment of the Holy Spirit to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ through worship of God, service to His people and stewardship of His gifts.

The people are invited to read the parts in bold.

THE ENTRANCE RITE

Prelude:

(10 a.m. only)

The people stand.

Processional:

Come Ye Thankful People Come

(10 a.m. only)

1

Come, ye thankful people, come,
raise the song of harvest home;
all is safely gathered in,
ere the winter storms begin.
God our Maker does provide for our wants to be supplied;
come to God's own temple, come,
raise the song of harvest home.

3

For the Lord our God shall come,
and shall take his harvest home;
from his field shall in that day
all offenses purge away, giving angels charge at last in the fire the tares to cast;
but the fruitful ears to store in the garner evermore.

2

All the world is God's own field, fruit unto his praise to yield;
wheat and tares together sown unto joy or sorrow grown;
first the blade and then the ear,
then the full corn shall appear;
Lord of harvest, grant that we wholesome grain and pure may be.

4

Even so, Lord, quickly come,
bring your final harvest home;
gather all your people in,
free from sorrow, free from sin,
there, forever purified,
in your presence to abide;
come, with all your angels, come,
raise the glorious harvest home.

The Salutation

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be His kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant may say

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

The Gloria

The Celebrant and People say together.

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The Collects

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Thanksgiving Day (Book of Common Prayer, 246)

Almighty and gracious Father, we give you thanks for the fruits of the earth in their season and for the labors of those who harvest them. Make us, we pray, faithful stewards of your great bounty, for the provision of our necessities and the relief of all who are in need, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People: Amen.

Collect for the Last Sunday after Pentecost: Christ the King (Book of Common Prayer, 236)

Celebrant: Almighty and everlasting God, whose will it is to restore all things in your well-beloved Son, the King of kings and Lord of lords: Mercifully grant that the peoples of the earth, divided and enslaved by sin, may be freed and brought together under his most gracious rule; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People: Amen.

Prayer for the Hurricane Season

Celebrant: Almighty and everlasting God, Creator and Preserver of all humankind, grant to us Your people, protection against the ravages of hurricane, flood, earthquake, drought or other calamities; that in tranquility of weather we may rejoice in the comfort we ever desire and may always make right use of Your great goodness; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

During the singing of the next hymn, the children will bring their gifts to the altar and then proceed to Sunday School.

1

Jesus loves me! This I know
 For the Bible tells me so;
 Little ones to Him belong;
 They are weak, but He is strong.

Refrain

Yes, Jesus loves me!
 Yes, Jesus loves me!
 Yes, Jesus loves me!
 The Bible tells me so.

2

Jesus loves me! He who died Heaven's gate to open wide;
 He will wash away my sin,
 Let His little child come in.

Refrain

3

Jesus loves me! He will stay
 Close beside me all the way;
 When at last I come to die,
 He will take me home on high.

Refrain

The people sit for the Liturgy of the Word. The Readings and Psalm are for Proper 29 (Year B) of the Lectionary.

The First Lesson: Joel 2:21-27

Reader: A reading from the Book of Joel.

Do not fear, O soil; be glad and rejoice, for the Lord has done great things! Do not fear, you animals of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness are green; the tree bears its fruit, the fig tree and vine give their full yield. O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the Lord your God; for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the later rain, as before. The threshing floors shall be full of grain, the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent against you. You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame. You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the Lord, am your God and there is no other. And my people shall never again be put to shame.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 126

(Page 782 of the Book of Common Prayer or as printed in the bulletin. We will read the psalm alternatively by verse).

- 1 When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, *then were we like those who dream.
- 2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, *and our tongue with shouts of joy.
- 3 Then they said among the nations, *"The Lord has done great things for them."
- 4 The Lord has done great things for us, *and we are glad indeed.
- 5 Restore our fortunes, O Lord, *like the watercourses of the Negev.
- 6 Those who sowed with tears *will reap with songs of joy.
- 7 Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed, *will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves.

The Second Lesson: 1 Timothy 2:1-7

Reader: A reading from the First Letter of Paul to Timothy.

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all ~ this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The people stand for the Sequence Hymn and the Gospel.

Sequence Hymn: Now Thank We All Our God (#397, 1982 Hymnal) (10 a.m. only)

1	2	3
Now thank we all our God with heart and hands and voices, who wondrous things has done, in whom his world rejoices; who from our mothers' arms has blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.	O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us, to keep us in his grace, and guide us when perplexed, and free us from all ills of this world in the next.	All praise and thanks to God the Father now be given, the Son and Spirit blest, who reign in highest heaven eternal Triune God, whom earth and heaven adore; for thus it was, is now, and shall be evermore.

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 6:25-33

Gospeler: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you~ you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What will we eat?' or 'What will we drink?' or 'What will we wear?' For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well."

Gospeler: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The people sit after the invocation to the Homily.

The Homily

The Rector

The people stand for the Nicene Creed.

The Nicene Creed

The Deacon or Celebrant shall say,

Let us reaffirm our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

Celebrant and People

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Annual Giving (Stewardship) & Pledge Ingathering

During the following hymn, the ushers will collect the pledge cards and Time and Talent forms and bring to the altar.

Hymn:

Count your Blessings

(10 a.m. only)

1
When upon life's billows
You are tempest tossed
When you are discouraged
Thinking all is lost
Count your many blessings
Name them one by one
And it will surprise you
What the Lord has done.

Chorus
*Count your blessings
Name them one by one
Count your blessings
See what God hath done
Count your blessings
Name them one by one
Count your many blessings
See what God has done.*

2
Are you ever burdened
With a load of care
Does the cross seem heavy
You are called to bear
Count your many blessings
Every doubt will fly
And you will be singing
As the days go by.

Chorus

3
When you look at others
With their lands and gold
Think that Christ has promised
You His wealth untold
Count your many blessings
Money cannot buy
Your reward in heaven
Nor your home on high.

Chorus

4
So amid the conflict
Whether great or small
Do not be discouraged
God is over all
Count your many blessings
Angels will attend
Help and comfort give you
To your journey's end.

Chorus

Prayer over Pledge Cards

At the presentation of the pledge cards to the altar, the Celebrant shall say the following prayer,

Gracious and loving God, giver of all that is good and true and beautiful and life-giving. These cards represent our sweat, they represent our lives, they represent our dreams. The pledges which we make on them are but tokens of the awesome gifts that have been given to us and they are pledged in thanksgiving for all we have received, for all we have been inspired to be, for all we are challenged to become, in this place. May they be the first fruits of all we have and not what we have left over, so that we may live out as closely as possible how you give to us. May we see them as our offering to you, sacred, holy, yet earthy, filled with possibilities. May we hold this image in our hearts and minds so as we watch our offerings each week come to your table, we can see our very selves being part of this offering, it is us on the table, living sacrifices to you.

People: Amen.

Prayer written by ⁵The Rt. Rev. Greg Rickel, Diocesan Bishop Diocese of Olympia

THE LITURGY OF THE ALTAR

The Great Thanksgiving

The people remain standing.

Eucharistic Prayer C

The Celebrant says

	The Lord be with you.
People:	And also with you.
Celebrant:	Lift up your hearts.
People:	We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant:	Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People:	It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

	God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.
People:	Glory to you for ever and ever.
Celebrant:	At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.
People:	By your will they were created and have their being.
Celebrant:	From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.
People:	Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.
Celebrant:	Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.
People:	By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

Celebrant: And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

The Sanctus

Celebrant and People

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Then the Celebrant continues

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Celebrant: Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

People: We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Celebrant: Lord God of our Fathers; God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

People: Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Celebrant: Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation.

People: Amen.

The people remain kneeling for the Lord's Prayer.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

Celebrant and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant: Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

The Agnus Dei

Celebrant: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world.

People: Have mercy on us.

Celebrant: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world.

People: Have mercy on us.

Celebrant: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world.

People: Grant us peace.

The Invitation

The Celebrant says the following Invitation

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The people will be directed to the altar rail by the Ushers for the administration of communion.

Communion Music: We Gather Together to ask the Lord's blessing (#433, 1982 Hymnal) (10 a.m. only)

1

We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing;
he chastens and hastens his will to make known;
the wicked oppressing now cease from distressing:
sing praises to his Name; he forgets not his own.

2

Beside us to guide us, our God with us joining, ordaining, maintaining his kingdom divine;
so from the beginning the fight we were winning:
thou, Lord, were at our side: all glory be thine!

We all do extol thee, thou leader triumphant,
and pray that thou still our defender wilt be.
Let thy congregation escape tribulation:
thy Name be ever praised! O Lord, make us free!

Jesus shall reign where're the sun (#544, 1982 Hymnal)

(10 a.m. only)

1

Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
Does its successive journeys run;
his kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
till moons shall wax and wane no more.

2

To him shall endless prayer be made,
and praises throng to crown his head;
his Name like sweet perfume shall rise with every morning sacrifice.

3

People and realms of every tongue dwell on his love with sweetest song; and infant voices shall proclaim their early blessings on his Name.

Blessings abound where'er he reigns:
the prisoners leap to lose their chains,
the weary find eternal rest,
and all who suffer want are blest.

5

Let every creature rise and bring peculiar honors to our King;
angels descend with songs again,
and earth repeat the loud amen.

1

Let all things now living a song of thanksgiving to God the creator triumphantly raise,
 who fashioned and made us,
 protected and stayed us, who still guides us on to the end of our days.
 God's banners are o'er us,
 his light goes before us, a pillar of fire
 shining forth in the night, till shadows have vanished
 and darkness is banished, as forward we travel
 from light into light

2

His law he enforces,
 the stars in their courses and sun in its orbit obediently shine;
 the hills and the mountains,
 the rivers and fountains,
 the deeps of the ocean
 proclaim him divine.
 We too should be voicing our love and rejoicing;
 with glad adoration
 a song let us raise till all things now living unite in thanksgiving:
 "to God in the highest,
 hosanna and praise!"

After Communion, the people remain kneeling and Celebrant says

Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

The Celebrant shall say,

May you never cease to give thanks for all the good gifts with which you have been blessed.

People: Amen.

Celebrant: May the Lord, who fills you with his bounty, give you faith, hope, and love.

People: Amen.

Celebrant: May you cherish the labor of those who provide us with our food and their love for the land and sea...and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

People: Amen.

The people stand for the Recessional.

Recessional:

Crown Him with Many Crowns (#494, 1982 Hymnal)

(10 a.m. only)

1

Crown him with many crowns,
the Lamb upon his throne;
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
all music but its own;
awake, my soul, and sing
of him who died for thee, and hail him as thy matchless King through all eternity.

3

Crown him the Lord of life,
who triumphed o'er the grave,
and rose victorious in the strife for those he came to save;
his glories now we sing who died, and rose on high, who died, eternal life to bring,
and lives that death may die.

2

Crown him the Son of God
before the worlds began,
and ye, who tread where he hath trod,
crown him the Son of man;
who every grief hath known that wrings the human breast, and takes and bears them for his own,
that all in him may rest.

5

Crown him the Lord of heaven,
enthroned in worlds above;
Crown him the King, to whom is given the wondrous name of Love.
Crown him with many crowns,
as thrones before him fall,
crown him, ye kings, with many crowns,
For he is King of all.

THE DISMISSAL

The Deacon, or the Celebrant, dismisses them with these words.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God. Alleluia! Alleluia!
