Deacon's Report

The new season at our church is starting again.

It's been a hot, hot summer, hotter than most of us can remember. There has been a break for most of us, but all are getting ready for fall.

I had a wonderful cruise in late July and August. I saw many places I had never been to. We cruised along the Moselle out of Brussels and followed this river to where it connects with the Rhine and all the magnificent sites there and ended up in wonderful Amsterdam. All was great!

Now I am starting to resume my work in the Martin Correctional Institution. I lead a weekly Bible study at MCI on Thursday afternoons from 1:30 to 3. I have a nucleus of men who attend every week and actively participate in the evening prayer service and do all four Bible selections for the day. We end with Communion and the prayer of St Francis. The regular attendees really seem to benefit from this format. We always sing the Lord's Prayer, which they love.

I am planning to be a part of the upcoming Kairos Weekend, which will be at the prison the third weekend of October. This is an intensive experience for those who attend. Kairos follows the same format as the Cursillo weekend, starting on Thursday evening and continuing for the next three days. Our intention is to bring the love of Christ to these men, and, to help them understand how Christ can change their lives.

We will start the program this week at the First Presbyterian Church in North Palm Beach. The training is for eight weeks from 6 to 9 p.m. Thursdays. We prepare ourselves to be good volunteers and get to know each other as spiritual brothers.

Studies have been done about Kairos' effect on prisoners and have shown this experience to make significant change in the men that prevents recidivism. Many volunteers like me have been doing these weekends for many years and really love the program.

My other activities at All Saints' involve facilitating the program for our members who are unable to attend church because of long-term or acute disabilities. We have several members who are Lay Eucharistic Visitors who bring Communion to those who are unable to attend church. The people we visit do really appreciate seeing us and they do really feel connected to our church. If you know of others who may want to have Communion brought out to them, please let us know.

The other program I have been working on with Father and George Mazza is the TRUE Fund, Toward the Relief of Unusual Emergencies. We have drafted a new set of bylaws to update this program. All Saints' has had the TRUE Fund for many years but has not had as many applicants in the past couple of years since the pandemic started. We are available to help others in need, such as to provide help with paying utility bills on a short term basis. This program also may be able to help similar clients of other agencies such as House of Hope and the Salvation Army.

Thank you all for all the help you give us in supporting these services.

In God's love,
Deacon Alan

Remember, National “Back to Church” Sunday is happening this Sept. 17! Invite a friend to come and see.

The Good News of Jesus is not meant to be kept to ourselves. The final instruction Jesus gave His disciples was to go into the world and invite others to a saving relationship with God.

This happens in our homes, neighborhoods, and around the world as we demonstrate God’s love, grace, and mercy to those who are far from Him. Sharing our faith is not an option, it is an expectation. We are ambassadors on behalf of the Kingdom of God and our message is simple – respond to God’s love and be reconciled to Him.

God’s grace has invited us to respond to His love. Once we respond, we have a responsibility to share it with others.

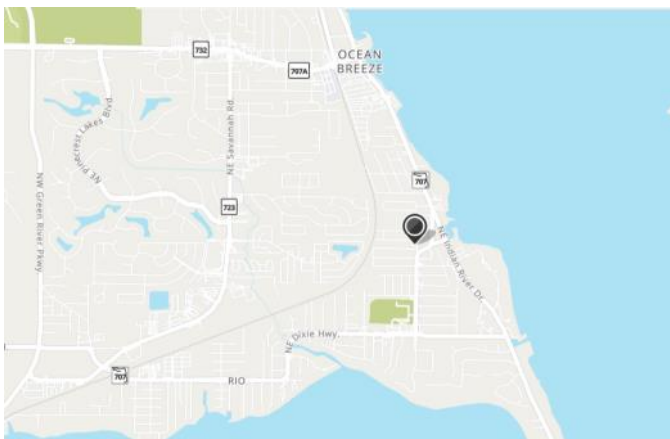

Prayerfully consider one person in your sphere of influence that you need to share the message of salvation with.

Invite a person with whom you can share the gospel message of love and redemption. Ask one of our members who once worshiped with us but has not done so for a long time to consider returning to the fold. Bring a person, not a member of another church family, but an individual who doesn’t worship, who doesn’t have an affinity with God.

Remember the purpose for this Sunday is to increase our church family. Your friend doesn’t need to have been raised in church to attend worship. Invite him or her to just “Come and See.”

We are a very friendly, welcoming, and beloved, church family and inviting someone to our church gives that individual an opportunity to join us.

Pages 13 and 14 are designed so that you can print them and hand them out to your friends and neighbors. Or, you can simply cut the bottom of this page.

Coffee Hour is a great way to socialize with our church family friends. Please come join us for coffee or tea and a few brunch delights, to greet one another, welcome new parishioners and guests, make plans for church activities and catch up with each other.

The Good News is... Two Sunday Coffee Hours will resume Sept. 10, one after each service. Having just one coffee hour during June, July and August has given Louise Andrews and Lorraine Devereaux, who prep the food on Saturday mornings, some additional time to complete other needed tasks. A special thank you also goes to Sandy Miller, who was so helpful with cleanup after coffee hour during the summer months.

If you missed coffee hour during the past month, you also missed a new coffee hour treat – a low-carb and no-sugar blueberry surprise. More low-carb and no-sugar treats are planned. Of course, if you have something special you would like to bake or purchase for coffee hour, that would be delightful. Please remember to sign your name and item you will bring under the date on the Food Calendar. We will continue to have deviled eggs, breakfast meats and egg casseroles for your good health.

We always need help with cleanup after the 10 a.m. coffee hour. Our outstanding crew of Eva Capparelli, Tina Kelly, Kim Kelly and Lorraine Devereaux are not always available every week. If you can help, please sign up under the date on the Clean Up Calendar after the 10 a.m. service.

Hope you like the new décor in Houg Hall. Come inside and see if you notice the addition. Don't wait too long as "it" will be changed for the fall in October. Also look forward to a HUGE change. Our HOUG HALL FLOORS will be refinished ... SOON. We have a very generous donor to fund this major project!

I promise to have some candid pictures next month. I just get so busy chatting with everyone during coffee hour that I forgot to take pictures. We had some new guests during the 8 a.m. service and coffee hour. Everyone was talking with them and made them feel at home. Hardly anyone sat down. Surely we are the friendliest church in Martin County?

Thank you for making my Ministry easy,
Louise Andrews

Cemetery Documentation goes to The Cloud

Our thanks to Duncan Hurd for finding Cemify, our new user-friendly software.

Thanks to Duncan's software find, Pam Hurd and I have found a whole new hobby – working ceaselessly, transitioning the data from the original cemetery records, the handwritten maps and our scanned documents, and then putting in all the longitude and latitude coordinates we obtained from the Bowman Consultants.

Fully implemented, Cemify will enable us to easily capture the number of lots available for cremation or casket burials, the number of individuals interred, the breakdown of casket burials to cremation burials and so much more. See the sample, below.

The BIG transition of cemetery documentation from scanned documents on one computer to having it backed up in the cloud and online in Cemify is moving forward.

Thanks to Louisa Beckett, Dorothy Bree, Theresa Power and Dorothy White for stepping up. We have two more friends of mine who will also assist.

With our current volunteers we won't be finished until Christmas 2024.

Endowment

"All's quiet on the eastern front" for the Heritage Society.

We had a busy winter season hosting a reception open to everyone with guest speaker John McHugh, who gave great advice on wills and trusts. Then we had the annual Heritage Society Appreciation Banquet held this year at the Elliott Museum, which included a museum tour with guest lecturer Steve Carr.

Not resting on our laurels, the Endowment Board met several times to disperse our earned interest on activities that enrich our church membership and spread the good word of All Saints'.

Since we are coming up on our 125 Anniversary, it was voted to support two worthy events we can all look forward to this fall and winter.

One is a 5K Run, Walk and Roll through our community Feb. 24 that will introduce many in our area to All Saints'.

The other event is the All Saints' Historic Display, which will be an exhibit opening Oct. 2 at the Elliott Museum on Hutchinson Island to introduce our church to everyone in the community. We donated some start up costs for each.

As always, only the interest on the investments we hold is used so the principal is not touched.

We are always looking for new members, so if you feel you would like to contribute to the future of All Saints' through its endowment, please see one of our committee members, who will be happy to give you information on how you can join the Heritage Society. They are Elyta Watkins, Harry Kapple, Bill Winsemann, Wanda Beymer, Alan Gellert, Pam Hurd, Wally Wallace, Jan Rajki, Frank Sundquist, Ralph Painter and, of course, Father Tony.

Respectfully submitted,

Elyta Watkins,
Chairperson

Daughters of the King

Wherever you go, God is sending you.
Wherever you are, God has put you there.

He has a purpose in you being there.

Christ, who indwells you, has something

He wants to do through you wherever you are.

Believe this and go in His grace and love and power.

the Rev. Richard C. Halverson former chaplain of the U.S. Senate

The All Saints' Chapter of the Daughters of the King continues to pray diligently for our church family and for those on our intercessory prayer list.

If you or someone you know is in need of prayers, let a Daughter know. You will know us by the cross we wear as pictured above.

The next meeting for members of the All Saints' Chapter of the DOK will be Monday, Oct. 2, at 5 p.m. in the church.

For His Sake...

I am but one, but I am one.
I cannot do everything, but I can do something.

What I can do, I ought to do.
What I ought to do, by the grace of God I will do.

Lord, what will you have me do?

Respectfully Submitted,
Sandy Miller

Peering Into the Past

The first wedding in our church building was in October 1927.

"HOMAN – STOCKLEY, NUPTIALS

"A most attractive wedding was solemnized at the All Saints Episcopal church at Waveland, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when Mr. Chester M. Homan, Chief of the Stuart Department and Miss Vera Lily Stockley of Salerno were united in marriage by the Reverend W. P.S. Lander of Holy Trinity Episcopal church of West Palm Beach.

The church was prettily decorated with garden flowers of varied colors with maiden hair fern twined among the bright colors. Mrs. C. H. Rue played the "Flower Song" as friends and neighbors gathered to witness the ceremony. Mrs. M. R. Cartwright sang "Beauty's Eyes" and "I Love You Truly," by Carrie Jacob Band. Mendelsohn's "Here Comes the Bride" heralded the approach of the bridal party, which was preceded by the ushers, Mr. L. E. Davis and Mr. C.H. Rue. Mr. Homan and his best man awaited the bride at the altar. She came on the arm of her father, Mr. James Stockley, over a flower strewn path, preceded by dainty little flower girl Velma Lovelle Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Davis of Stuart, dressed in a dainty peach georgette, carrying a basket of roses.

Mrs. James Stockley, the bride's mother, wore a dark blue georgette with a large black hat, while the attendants and party wore dainty gowns of georgette ranging in colors from the peach of the organist's to that of orchid of the matron of honor, each attendant wearing a large picture hat.

A wedding luncheon was served at the home at Salerno to the bridal party and near friends.

Here the tables were centered with ferns and hibiscus. Mrs. Stockley was assisted by Mrs. J. P.

Wilbar, Mrs. C. E. Pitts and Miss Betty Wilbar, in serving the luncheon.

Many beautiful and useful gifts of silver, china and linen were received, showing the many friendships of both in Salerno and Stuart.

Mr. Chester Homan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Homan of Jamaica, Long Island, New York. He came to Stuart five years ago and has made this city his home since that time. He was made chief of the fire department of Stuart last January after having served that department two years and is also a member of the Knights of Pythians lodge.

Mrs. Homan is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Stockley of Salerno. She has been prominent with the young people of this section; belongs to the Auxiliary of the American Legion and is a member of the Pythian Sisters and the Golden Triangle of that order in this city.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Homan left in their car for a honeymoon on the west coast. Upon their return they will make their home in Stuart, and after the first of November they will be at home to their friends at the Charlotte apartment in the Bessey addition.:

The Parish Register shows Chester Marion Homan, age 30 of Stuart, Fla., and his parents. His bride was the 21-year-old Vera Lillian Stockly of Salerno, Fla. Her parents and their witnesses, Roscoe L. Bell and Thelma Bell.

Interestingly enough, the register doesn't tell us where the weddings are held. Therefore, the first one listed isn't the first one to be held in the church.

Garden Happenings!

"Jackson, Wait, you said you came back twice?" Greta continued: "But I still have not seen Little One."

"Why yes, we did – and the last time I saw Little One, he was in Houg Hall. I wonder where he could have gotten," replied Jackson. "I'll keep looking, but maybe we should ask the Whisperer."

A few days later:

"Whisperer, we have question." Greta whispered because Groggy was napping; as usual. "Have you seen Little One?"

"Ah yes, I did see him in Houg Hall about a week ago. He was listening to a few people that were gathered and talking, and I saw him wink at a few of the ladies." I answered.

"Hmm, well, I still have not heard from him" said Greta.

Taking a large breath I gently began: "Oh Greta, you are worried. I think you have forgotten something. God does not want you to be worried. I know it is one of our ... ah, frailties – we all tend to worry about something at some time. But that is not what God's plan is for us. Don't get me wrong, I don't know His plan; but God tells us to turn our worries over to him."

"Well, I thought Little One liked it in The Garden; and he has been gone for quite a while." Greta spoke very softly.

"Greta, Groggy has happily been here for a very long time, and Draco is happy up in his tree. You, Bea and Little One have been here for a while. Jackson and Freddy are still fairly new. I think it is wonderful you all get along and care for each other. But each you, actually all of us, are individuals. Each one of us is God's creation. Can you recall the parable about the wren and how God cares for it?" I asked.

Greta nodded her head a wee bit; so I continued: "God can take care of this. Turn your worries over to God. And if He wants you to do something ... You will know it! I'm not worried about Little One, because I spoke with him a week or so ago. Let him continue his adventure and be happy for him. I'll keep both of you in my prayers."

"Okay that sounds like a good plan: Turn it over to God! – since worrying has only made me upset," Greta said.

"Great!" I answered. "And you might want

Sunday school

Our first day of Sunday School, known as “Rally Day”, will be Sept. 10, the Sunday after Labor Day.

I’m looking forward to our new Sunday school year and hoping everyone will be able to attend!
Plus BRING A FRIEND!

As always, the children will begin in church and then walk out with the This Photo by Sunday School Cross. Then, the children will return in time to receive communion with their families. After the 10 a.m. service, everyone is invited to our annual Ice Cream Social in Houg Hall. We all love ice cream topped with chocolate sauce, whipped cream, sprinkles and nuts with a cherry on top, so be our guest and enjoy! Besides we want to express to everyone, “Thank you for always supporting our Sunday School!”

By the way, we want to thank our 8 o’clockers as well, so after the 8 a.m. service, go out for brunch and then come back to Houg Hall for dessert!

Our K-5 Sunday School program will continue to reinforce each week’s Gospel lesson by exploring it through the Bible and through activities, stories and projects. This year we will study The Lord’s Prayer as well. The children will also be involved throughout the year with church and community outreach projects.

What about our older children? Our middle school and high school children have an opportunity to become an acolyte. An acolyte is an assistant to Father Tony during the 10 a.m. service. Dr. Chris Jones leads this ministry. Both he and Father Tony train the acolytes. Participation is on a rotating schedule. Both acolytes and Sunday school age children work together on our outreach projects.

Our nursery is open during the 10 a.m. service and provides developmentally appropriate “toy” fun, music and story time, for children under the age of 5. We are rotating our nursery caregivers every fifth week. So far, we have only one little fellow, Owen Johnson, who attends the nursery. We could use more volunteers! If anyone is interested in this worthy ministry, please see Karen Neff. Spread the word to your family and friends about our wonderful Sunday School Program!

to gently remind your friend Bea of the same thing. A few minutes ago she was flying very fast and almost flew into my face. But she veered at the last second, kept muttering and flew west toward the railroad tracks.”

“That’s Bea, she likes the flowers in the gardens down the street near the tracks”. Greta answered just as Groggy groaned. “Ah-hoe-hum; I think it’s time to wake up,” Groggy said.

*I waved and slowly backed out of view. I thought about how things were in The Garden; and how they were among our church family; I think we could all learn from both Father and Greta... turn it over to God.

But then I recalled Father saying we need to be in relationship with God – and that, among other things, means prayers. Ah ha, I thought I need to rededicate myself to prayer too.

*We’ll see you around The Garden soon, I hope!
