DEDICATION

To the Clergy, Wardens, Vestries, and People of All Saints' Episcopal Church, who laid the foundation for this faith community, and gave generously of their time, talent and treasure, toward the ministry of this church during the past hundred and twenty-five years.

To all our brothers and sisters in Christ who, today, embody the vision and mission of All Saints' Church.

To all who will carry on the journey after us.

To God, who is the Alpha and the Omega of all that we do.

MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

My Dear Friends:

It is with joy that we gather to celebrate the Quasquicentennial Anniversary of our Church. This is a significant milestone for us, as a faith community, and for me personally, as we work together for God and his kingdom on earth. I am delighted to be serving as your priest and pastor at this time in our Church's history.

We warmly welcome home our Bishop, the Right Reverend Peter Eaton. It is a joy to have him as our Celebrant and Preacher. We also welcome our guests and friends to this service and hope it will be a blessing.

For one hundred and twenty-five years, All Saints' Church has engaged in worship, service, outreach, fellowship, and discipleship, within the Treasure Coast and wider community. We celebrate a long and faithful witness which our ancestors, clergy and lay, started and passed on to us, and we will pass it on to those after us.

My thanks and appreciation to the members of the 125th Anniversary Team - Beth Beltran, Joyce Fletcher-Menard, Duncan Hurd, Harry Kapple (Senior Warden), Jack Miller (Junior Warden), Sandy Miller, Karen Neff, Paul Neff, Dayna Straehley, and Natalie Walters, for the tremendous work they are doing in planning the celebrations. Thanks also to the Worship Support and Hospitality Teams, and all persons who have assisted in the planning, preparation, and implementation of today's celebration. Special thanks to Salvatore Perla who graciously consented to be our photographer.

I am grateful to you for your love, support, stewardship, and faithfulness to our Church. May God continue to bless you, your families, and loved ones.

With love and every blessing!

The Very Reverend Dr. Anthony B. Holder
Rector

ORDER OF SERVICE

Prelude

THE ENTRANCE RITE

The people stand and join in the singing of the following hymn.

Processional:                      Lo, he comes with clouds descending                      (#57, 1982 Hymnal)

Lo! he comes, with clouds descending, once for our salvation slain;
thousand thousand saints attending swell the triumph of his train:
    Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Christ the Lord returns to reign.

Every eye shall now behold him,
    robed in dreadful majesty;
those who set at nought and sold him, pierced, and nailed him to the tree,
deeply wailing, deeply wailing, deeply wailing, shall the true Messiah see.

3
Those dear tokens of his passion still his dazzling body bears, cause of endless exultation
    to his ransomed worshipers;
with what rapture, with what rapture,
    with what rapture
    gaze we on those glorious scars!

Yea, amen! let all adore thee,
    high on thine eternal throne;
Savior, take the power and glory;
claim the kingdom for thine own:
    Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Thou shalt reign, and thou alone.

Words: Charles Wesley (1707–1788)

Music: Helmsley, melody Thomas Augustine Arne (1710–1778); harm. Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872–1958), alt.

The Advent Wreath Celebration

The Lighting of the First Candle

The First Sunday of Advent

Reader:            Jesus said, “I am the light of the world. Those who follow Me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.”

Celebrant:        Our Lord says: “Surely I come quickly.”

People:            Even so, come, Lord Jesus, come quickly!

Reader:            The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light. They lived in a land of shadows, but My light is shining on them. (Isaiah 9:2)

Celebrant:        We light this candle to remind us of the hope of all people for the Savior who will bring us freedom and peace. This hope was promised by the prophets of the Old Testament who shared their vision of justice coming to the earth by the mighty acts of God.

The First Candle is Lit.

A Short Pause

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Father, you awaken in us the desire for the coming of Your Son Jesus. May He bring the kingdom of peace and justice You promise for the whole earth.

People: Amen.

THE BIDDING

The Celebrant leads the Bidding Prayer.

Dear People of God: One hundred and twenty-five years ago, the cornerstone of this church was laid. The earliest reference to Episcopal activity in this area appears to have started in January 1894 when Bishop William Crane Gray delivered a sermon in the parlor of the Jensen Hotel. Nevertheless, the laying of the cornerstone marks the official origins of an Episcopal presence in this community.

Today we gather to give thanks to almighty God for the faithful ministry, mission, work, and service, of those who have served in this Church and Parish of All Saints' for over a century, and for those who continue to offer God and the people in this community true and laudable service. We praise God that His Word has been truly preached and truly heard, that the Sacraments have been faithfully administered and faithfully received.

As we celebrate the 125th Anniversary of this Church's life and ministry, let us also celebrate God, asking Him to strengthen the faithful, arouse the careless, and restore the penitent; to bestow His continued grace and blessings on this Church, its clergy and people, for His guidance, strength, and commitment, as we continue to work in faithful service for Him. Let us now offer to God glory and praise as we worship and pray together.

The Celebrant then continues

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be His kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for Purity

The Celebrant may say

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Collect for the Anniversary of a Church

Celebrant: Almighty God, to whose glory we celebrate the Anniversary of our Church: We give you thanks for the fellowship of those who have worshiped in this place, and we pray that all who seek you here may find you, and be filled with your joy and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People: Amen.

Collect for the First Sunday of Advent (Book of Common Prayer, 211)

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life in which your Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People: Amen.

The people sit for the Liturgy of the Word.

The First Lesson: Exodus 19:1-9a

Reader: A reading from the Book of Exodus.

On the third new moon after the Israelites had gone out of the land of Egypt, on that very day, they came into the wilderness of Sinai. They had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. Then Moses went up to God; the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites." So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the Lord had commanded him. The people all answered as one: "Everything that the Lord has spoken we will do." Moses reported the words of the people to the Lord. Then the Lord said to Moses, "I am going to come to you in a dense cloud, in order that the people may hear when I speak with you and so trust you ever after."

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 133

(Page 729 of the Book of Common Prayer or as printed in the bulletin. We will read the psalm alternatively by verse).

- 1 Oh, how good and pleasant it is, when brethren live together in unity!
- 2 It is like fine oil upon the head that runs down upon the beard,
- 3 Upon the beard of Aaron, and runs down upon the collar of his robe.
- 4 It is like the dew of Hermon that falls upon the hills of Zion.
- 5 For there the LORD has ordained the blessing: life for evermore.

The Second Lesson: Romans 12: 1-21

Reader: A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans.

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect. For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness. Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." No, "if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn

O God, our help in ages past

(#680, 1982 Hymnal)

O God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast,
and our eternal home:

Before the hills in order stood,
or earth received her frame,
from everlasting thou art God,
to endless years the same.

5
Time, like an ever-rolling stream, bears all our years away;
they fly, forgotten, as a dream dies at the opening day.

2
under the shadow of thy throne thy saints have dwelt secure;
sufficient is thine arm alone,
and our defense is sure.

A thousand ages in thy sight are like an evening gone;
short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

O God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
be thou our guide while life shall last,
and our eternal home.

Words: Words: Isaac Watts (1674–1748), alt.; para. of Psalm 90

Music: St. Anne, melody att. William Croft (1678–1727), alt.; harm. William Henry Monk (1823–1889)

The Holy Gospel: John 15: 1-17

Gospeler: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples. As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete. "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.

Gospeler: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

The Bishop

The People remain standing for the invocation to the Homily, after which they shall sit.

The Nicene Creed

The people stand for the Nicene Creed.

The Celebrant shall say,

Let us reaffirm our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

Celebrant and People

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

(#56, 1982 Hymnal)

O come, O come, Emmanuel, that mourns in lonely exile here

until the Son of God appear.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
shall come to thee, O Israel!

3

O come, O come, thou Lord of might, who to thy tribes on Sinai's height in ancient times didst give the law, in cloud, and majesty, and awe.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
shall come to thee, O Israel!

5

O come, thou Key of David, come,
and open wide our heavenly home;
make safe the way that leads on high,
and close the path to misery.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
shall come to thee, O Israel!

O come, thou Wisdom from on high,

Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
shall come to thee, O Israel!

4

O come, thou Branch of Jesse's tree, and give them victory o'er the grave.

Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
shall come to thee, O Israel!

Eucharistic Prayer A

S112

The musical score is written on four staves, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are written below the notes, with some words underlined. The first staff is for the Celebrant and the People, the second for the Celebrant and the People, the third for the Celebrant, and the fourth for the People.

Celebrant People
The Lord be with you, and al - so with you.

Celebrant People
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People
It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Because in Jesus Christ our Lord you have received us as your sons and daughters, made us citizens of your kingdom, and given us the Holy Spirit to guide us into all truth.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Ho - ly, ho - ly ho - ly Lord, God of power and might.

Ho ly ho ly ho ly Lord, God of power and might, hea ven and earth are full, full of your glo ry. Ho san na in the high est, Ho sa na in the high est.

Bless ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho san - na in the high - est.

The Consecration Prayer

The people may sit or stand, as desired, during the Eucharistic Prayer.

The Celebrant says

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Celebrant and People

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ:

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

People: Amen.

The people remain kneeling or standing, as desired, for the Lord's Prayer.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

Celebrant and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant: Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

The Agnus Dei

S161

The musical notation for 'The Agnus Dei' consists of three staves, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The lyrics are written below the notes. The first two staves have identical lyrics: 'Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us.' The third staff has the lyrics: 'Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: grant _____ us peace.' The melody is simple and repetitive, with a final long note on 'peace'.

The Invitation

The Celebrant says the following Invitation

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All baptized Christians who desire to share in the Blessed Sacrament are invited to do so. You will be invited to come forward at the appropriate time by the Ushers. If you are receiving communion by intinction (dipping of bread in the wine), please indicate this preference by extending your finger in front of you. If you wish not to receive communion, you can fold your hands across your chest and receive a blessing.

Let us break bread together on our knees

(#325, 1982 Hymnal)

Let us break bread together on our knees;
Let us break bread together on our knees;
    when I fall on my knees,
    with my face to the rising sun,
    O Lord, have mercy on me.

Let us drink wine together on our knees;
Let us drink wine together on our knees;
    when I fall on my knees,
    with my face to the rising sun,
    O Lord, have mercy on me.

Let us praise God together on our knees;
Let us praise God together on our knees;
    when I fall on my knees,
    with my face to the rising sun,
    O Lord, have mercy on me.

The Church's one foundation (verses 1-3, 5)

(#525, 1982 Hymnal)

1

The Church's one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord;
    she is his new creation
    by water and the word:
from heaven he came and sought her
    to be his holy bride;
with his own blood he bought her,
    and for her life he died.

Elect from every nation,
yet one o'er all the earth,
    her charter of salvation,
one Lord, one faith, one birth;
    one holy Name she blesses,
    partakes one holy food,
and to one hope she presses,
    with every grace endued.

Though with a scornful wonder men see her sore oppressed,
    by schisms rent asunder,
    by heresies distressed;
yet saints their watch are keeping,
    their cry goes up, "How long?"
and soon the night of weeping shall be the morn of song.

Yet she on earth hath union with God, the Three in One, and mystic sweet communion with those whose rest is won.
    O happy ones and holy!
    Lord, give us grace that we like them, the meek and lowly, on high may dwell with thee.

Words: Samuel John Stone (1839–1900); Music: Aurelia, Samuel Sebastian Wesley (1818–1876)

The King shall come when morning dawns

(#73, 1982 Hymnal)

1

The King shall come when morning dawns
and light triumphant breaks;
when beauty gilds the eastern hills and life to joy awakes.

Not, as of old, a little child,
to bear, and fight, and die,
but crowned with glory like the sun that lights the morning sky.

The King shall come when morning dawns
and earth's dark night is past;
O haste the rising of that morn,
the day that e'er shall last;

4

and let the endless bliss begin,
by weary saints foretold,
when right shall triumph over wrong,
and truth shall be extolled.

The King shall come when morning dawns
and light and beauty brings:
Hail, Christ the Lord! Thy people pray, come quickly, King of kings.

Words: Greek; tr. John Brownlie (1859–1925), alt. Music: St. Stephen, William Jones (1726–1800), alt.

Let all mortal flesh keep silence

(#324, 1982 Hymnal)

Let all mortal flesh keep silence,
and with fear and trembling stand;
ponder nothing earthly-minded,
for with blessing in his hand Christ our God to earth descendeth, our full homage to demand.

King of kings, yet born of Mary,
as of old on earth he stood,
Lord of lords in human vesture,
in the Body and the Blood
he will give to all the faithful his own self for heavenly food.

Rank on rank the host of heaven spreads its vanguard on the way, as the Light of Light descendeth from the realms of endless day, that the powers of hell may vanish
as the darkness clears away.

At his feet the six-winged seraph;
cherubim with sleepless eye veil their faces to the Presence, as with ceaseless voice they cry, “Alleluia, alleluia!
Alleluia, Lord Most High!”

*Words: Liturgy of St. James; para. Gerard Moultrie (1829–1885)
Music: Picardy, French carol, 17th cent.; melody from Chansons populaires des Provinces de France, 1860; harm. after The English Hymnal, 1906*

Commissioning of Lay Eucharistic Visitors

Lay Eucharistic Visitors come to altar rail for commissioning and to receive communion kits.

Celebrant: In the name of this Congregation, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood.

People: We, who are many, are one body, because we all share one bread and one cup.

The Post-Communion Prayer

After Communion, the people remain kneeling and the Celebrant says

Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Episcopal Blessing

The Celebrant shall say,

People The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Celebrant: Our help is in the name of the Lord.

People: The maker of heaven and earth.

Celebrant: Blessed be the name of the Lord.

People: From this time forth and forevermore.

Celebrant: May you, who rejoice in the first Advent of our Redeemer, at his second Advent be rewarded with unending life; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you, and remain with you always.

People: Amen.

THE DISMISSAL

The people stand, and the Deacon dismisses them with these words.

People: Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

The Crucifer and the Acolytes lead the people during the recessional to the gardens for the congregation photograph. The people shall recess in orderly fashion by two.

Recessional:

To God be the glory

1

To God be the glory
great things He has done.

So loved He the world that He gave us His Son.

Who yielded His life an atonement for sin and opened the life-gate that all may go in.

O perfect redemption, the purchase of blood to every believer the promise of God.

The vilest offender who truly believes that moment from Jesus a pardon receives.

Refrain

Refrain

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord
let the earth hear His voice.

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord
let the people rejoice.

O come to the Father through Jesus the Son, and give Him the glory
great things He has done.

Great things He has taught us,
great things He has done
and great our rejoicing through Jesus the Son.
But purer, and higher, and greater will be
Our wonder, our worship, when Jesus we see.

Refrain

Words: Fanny Crosby (1875)
